

Clinical Research Nurse Certification Council (CRNCC)

Request for Appeal of Certification Application/Renewal/Revocation

Requesting an appeal of a decision pertaining to certification status is time sensitive; you may file an appeal up to 30 days of receiving notice of denial from the CRN Certification Council (CRNCC). The appeal process is purposeful, deliberate, and analytical; therefore, a final decision may take approximately 10 weeks.

I _____(Name) request a review of my certification determination for: (select one):

- Initial certification denial
- Certification renewal (recertification) denial
- Certification revocation

Please provide the following contact information should additional information be required, and to receive the final decision from the Appeals Committee.

Email: _____ Phone number: _____

Please attach a letter outlining the reason for appeal and any supporting documentation and return along with this form to CRNCertification@gmail.com.

By submitting this document, I attest that all information submitted for review of this appeal is accurate and factual. Additionally, I agree to abide by the Appeals Committee's judgement of this request as a final decision.
